ORDER
Supervised Release Violation Hearing

On June 30, 2015, a hearing was held on a charge that the Defendant had violated the terms and conditions of supervised release as set forth in the Court's Judgment filed in the above-entitled case on November 12, 2014, a copy of which is attached hereto and incorporated by reference into this Order.

The Defendant was represented by Renorda Pryor, Attorney.

The Defendant was found to have violated the terms and conditions of his supervised release. The violations were willful and without lawful excuse.

IT IS ORDERED that the Defendant's supervised release shall not be revoked. The Court has considered the U.S. Sentencing Guidelines and the policy statements, which are advisory, and the Court has considered the applicable factors of 18 U.S.C. § 3553(a).

IT IS ORDERED that the Defendant is to remain on supervised release. The Defendant shall participate in a cognitive behavioral treatment program as directed by the probation officer, and pay for treatment services, as directed by the probation officer. Such programs may include group sessions led by a qualified counselor or participation in a program administered by the probation office.

The choice of counselor rests in the discretion of probation.

IT IS ORDERED that the Defendant shall abide by all conditions and terms of the location monitoring home detention program for a period of six (6) months. At the direction of the probation officer, Defendant shall wear a location monitoring device which may include Global Positioning System (GPS) or other monitoring technology and follow all program procedures specified by the probation officer. Defendant shall pay for the location monitoring services as directed by the probation officer.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that all other terms and conditions of supervised release as previously imposed remain in full force and effect.

DEFENDANT: BRIAN DAVID HILL
CASE NUMBER: 1:13CR435-1

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

The defendant shall cooperatively participate in an evaluation and a mental health treatment program with emphasis on sex offender treatment, and pay for those treatment services, as directed by the probation officer. Treatment may include physiological testing, such as the polygraph and penile plethysmograph, and the use of prescribed medications.

The defendant shall not possess or use a computer or any other means to access any "on-line computer service" at any location (including employment) without the prior approval of the probation officer. This includes any Internet service provider, bulletin board system, or any other public or private computer network.

If granted access to an "on-line computer service," the defendant shall consent to the probation officer conducting periodic unannounced examinations of his computer equipment, which may include hardware, software, and copying all data from his computer. This may include the removal of such equipment, when necessary, for the purpose of conducting a more thorough examination.

The defendant shall consent to third-party disclosure to any employer or potential employer concerning any computer-related restrictions that have been imposed upon him.

The defendant shall provide his personal and business telephone records to the probation officer upon request and consent to the release of certain information from any on-line, telephone, or similar account.

The defendant shall not have any contact, other than incidental contact in a public forum such as ordering in a restaurant, grocery shopping, etc., with any person under the age of 18, except his own children, without prior permission of the probation officer. Any approved contact shall be supervised by an adult at all times. The contact addressed in this condition includes, but is not limited to, direct or indirect, personal, telephonic, written, or through a third party. If the defendant has any contact with any child, that is a person under the age of 18, not otherwise addressed in this condition, the defendant is required to immediately remove himself from the situation and notify the probation office within 24 hours.

The defendant shall not frequent places where children congregate, such as parks, playgrounds, schools, video arcades, daycare centers, swimming pools, or other places primarily used by children under the age of 18, without the prior approval of the probation officer.

The defendant shall not view, purchase, possess, or control any sexually explicit materials, including, but not limited to, pictures, magazines, video tapes, movies, or any material obtained through access to any computer or any material linked to computer access or use.

The defendant shall submit to a search of his person, property, house, residence, vehicle, papers, computer, other electronic communication or data storage devices or media, and effects at any time, with or without a warrant, by any law enforcement officer or probation officer with reasonable suspicion concerning unlawful conduct or a violation of a condition of probation or supervised release.

The defendant shall register with the state sex offender registration agency in any state where he may reside, is employed, carries on a vocation, or is a student.
